*Let the flow

A photograph of a modern shower area. The shower has a large glass door that is partially open, revealing a lush green garden with trees and a stone wall. The interior of the shower is visible through the glass, showing a tiled floor and a showerhead. The text "Shower" is written in a large, bold, yellow serif font. Below it, the phrase "Let relaxation pour over you" is written in a smaller, elegant, white script font. The background of the text is a dark, textured purple and blue gradient. There are also some light blue curved lines and a small yellow triangle in the background.
